

Lindsay Gerken
Lead Blue Jay Teacher

Lindsay Gerken graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Lindsay's studies included courses in child psychology and human development. In addition, Lindsay is certified in Preventing Disease Transmission and Therapeutic Crisis Intervention.

Lindsay always been passionate about children and began baby-sitting in 6th grade. Throughout college, Lindsay worked as a nanny for two different families, where she planned numerous educational lessons and experiences. Lindsay was an Assistant Teacher at the YWCA, and she helped coordinate classroom curriculum at the Dover Children's Center. Lindsay believes that children learn best when they are having a good time and when things are kept consistent. Every day and every experience is an opportunity to teach something new.

In her free time, Lindsay was a Hurricane Relief Volunteer. She loves to be outdoors – swimming at the beach and snowboarding in the mountains. Lindsay is a huge sports fan – the New York Jets are her favorite football team.

Caitlin Mullin
Assistant Blue Jay Teacher

Caitlin received a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Florida, and she received a master's degree from George Washington University in community counseling.

Upon graduating from the University of Florida, Caitlin became a co-lead teacher at a preschool in Florida. Caitlin has also worked as a nanny for 1-year-old triplets, two boys and a girl. Caitlin's experiences as a home-based counselor have provided her the opportunity to help children and families during unstable times in their lives. She is also trained in applied behavior analysis and has provided therapy for children with autism.

In her spare time, she enjoys reading and cooking. Her favorite outdoor activity is snowboarding! Caitlin is thrilled to be getting back into teaching, and she is excited to be the newest member of the Blue Jay class!
