

Rebecca Verret
Lead Hummingbird Teacher

Rebecca has an Applied Associates Degree in Early Childhood Education and a Career Study Certificate in Child Development from Tidewater Community College.

Rebecca has an extensive background in working with infants and toddlers. Her experiences include working in learning centers in Virginia and North Carolina, and she was a home child care provider for two years. Rebecca's goal is to help children learn and grow through creative activities and play.

Rebecca is married to Joshua, who is in the U.S. Navy. They have two beautiful daughters, Emily and Katie.

Amanda Nicholson
Assistant Hummingbird Teacher

Amanda graduated from Williams College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Psychology. Many of her college courses focused on developmental psychology.

Amanda has experience working with children through classroom internships and preschool assistant teaching positions. While working at Village Nursery School, Amanda guided and coordinated arts and craft activities and facilitated social and cognitive learning.

In addition, she has worked as a lifeguard, swim instructor and assistant swim coach for several years. While serving as an assistant coach, she planned and coached practices for a team of forty swimmers. She was also a volunteer swim instructor for a local youth center in New York.
