

Sammie McGinnis

Director

Ms. Sammie is so happy to return to Early Years for the 4th year. She is even more excited to continue in her role as Director. She has over 12 years of experience in Early Child Education. She Graduated from George Mason University with a Bachelors in Interpersonal Organizational Communication and Psychology.

Ms. Sammie grew up in Newark, Delaware where her family still lives. She currently lives in Washington, DC with her boyfriend, Justin.

Ms. Sammie has friends and family all over the country. When not at Early Years she likes to spend her time visiting them and traveling to new places. In total she has been to 22 states and 6 countries, but she hopes to visit more.
